PERINTON CONGREGATIONS FOR FLOWER CITY HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Mark S. reported that at the January meeting, the group decided to move forward with building a house this year. The house will be at 79 Lime St., with the groundbreaking to occur on May 16. Volunteers could begin work a few weeks after that. They will be in a 6 month build schedule and the house should be finished in Mid-Nov.

They will build a shed off-site; therefore, the kids under 16 will be able to work on it under our supervision.

Question from Pat M.: Is the Josanna neighborhood completed?

Response from Mark S.: No, however, FCHH has fulfilled its pledge.

PMUNY

Joyce brought the February 24th newspaper containing an article about S.T.A.R. – “Strategic Training Advancing Re-Entry”. Joyce’s part as a facilitator in the program is mentioned in the story. She was very excited about the program because she can already see that rehabilitation is occurring as a result. She took some time to tell us how the program works and the requirements to be accepted into it.

STOP THE STIGMA

Although there was not a representative from the group, several Board members had been to the The Jordyn Keeley Memorial Art and Writing Competition. Both attendance and art submissions were down even though submissions were from all over Monroe County. Currently they don’t have an overabundance of active kids.

ANNUAL REPORT

The annual report has been sent out to each of the churches

NEW BUSINESS - WEBSITE EXPLANATION

Kevin has re-arranged where files will be put on the website.

Initially a folder for each meeting will be created and all reports will be put there.

However, he has also created a folder for each ministry. All reports from each ministry will be copied into their folder from the meeting folder so that it will be easier for us to track what is going on within the individual ministries.

Although we can look at all of the files, we cannot add, delete or edit them – only people with the permissions will be able to do that.

Some of the files, i.e., the roster are still password protected.

There being no further business, Judy B. moved that the meeting be adjourned. It was accepted by acclamation.

Respectfully submitted,
Lois Rixner, Acting Secretary
