(Treasurer); First Congregational UCC: Chic Gray; Mountain Rise UCC: Bill Holliday;

The meeting was called to order by Rick who substituted for Mark.

Website: The new website is now up and running. Two changes need to be made. Ron Hirschler's picture should be added to the home page next to "Coming in 2020." Add web address with ".org", ask churches to post that address to their web pages, then eventually drop the address with ".com."

Flower City Habitat for Humanity: Rick spoke with Ethel Duble, Development & Marketing Director to find out when we need to give FCHFH a firm commitment to build in 2020. She has penciled us in to build next year. She would like to attend our next meeting. Both Ethel and Ken Braley, Development & Volunteer Engagement Manager, are willing to speak at our churches.

Flower City has hired two production managers to coordinate the building so that volunteers will know what they will be doing when they sign up. It was suggested that we ask them to open up their calendar beyond one or two months to make registration easier.

Finance report: Don presented the attached report and we reviewed and updated the estimates. All estimates remain the same with the exception of First Congregational UCC who can't commit for 2020 until February. The gifts-in-kind for St. John will be less than they were in 2017 as they won't be doing the roof in 2020.

Rick will check with Darren Miller at Custom100 on whether we still owe him money for the website development.

Next meeting: Monday, January 27, 7:00 p.m. Location to be determined.

Respectfully submitted,

Carlee Brown, Co-Secretary
